INVIVO WINES

July 12, 2017

Invivo Wines is a New Zealand wine brand that recently launched in the U.S. Let's give them a warm welcome! 🍷👏 With vineyards in the Marlborough region, it's no wonder why the quality is so high.

We tried their Savignon Blanc and Pinot Noir, here are our thoughts.

Invivo Savignon Blanc:

Bright, citrus and floral aromas fill your sense of smell as you inhale this clean and cool wine. Definitely resembled an old favorite, Kim Crawford Savignon Blanc. The texture is full bodied, but not overpowering. This is definitely something you can drink chilled on a hot day without thinking too much about it. The mineral flavor is light and crisp.

Invivo Pinot Noir:

This wine is not shy. Right away you can detect the scent of dark cherries, and spices. It has hints of plum as well. The taste is rich, smokey and oak like. Made us of think of something you could wind down with at a bonfire on the beach after a long day of fun in the sun this summer. (Wow what a great scene). 🍷🔥🔥🔥

In sum, Invivo gets the green light from the Senioritas, we highly recommend giving this brand a try!
