

what's new

For Radiant-Looking Skin

Kiwis can now deeply cleanse, balance and purify their skin with the new Essano Clarifying Clay Masque. Containing certified organic rosehip oil, shea butter, clay and aloe vera, this masque is perfect for any skin type. While many clay masques are drying to the skin, Essano's new offer rejuvenates and clarifies impurities gently without stripping the skin of its natural oil. The skin is left feeling soft and smooth, and looking radiant.

Organic Take On Breakfast

The new Weet-Bix Organic offers the ideal solution for organic-conscious Kiwis who love to eat well and don't want to compromise on their healthy approach to life. Featuring all the taste and wholesome goodness of Weet-Bix, it is made from certified organic wheat, boasts a 5-star health rating, and is low in sugar and high in fibre. "Consumers are increasingly keen to live a conscious, balanced life with an awareness of what they are putting into their bodies," said Sanitarium spokesperson Jessica Manihera. "New Weet-Bix Organic gives them the option of the breakfast cereal they know and love, that's also certified organic."

Crunchy Miniature Treats

In the lead up to Easter, Cadbury has partnered with Oreo again to create its outstanding, limited-edition Oreo Creme Eggs. These crunchy, miniature treats are another match made in heaven, combining delicious chocolate with fragments of Oreo biscuits and sweet vanilla cream. To please all palates, the more 'traditional' Cadbury Creme Eggs are also available. "While they share a similar eating occasion, that's where the similarities end," said the company in a statement. "Cadbury Creme Eggs and Cadbury Oreo Easter eggs are two very different tasting eggs." They are sold in different formats, including 34g individual eggs and 190g gift boxes.

supermarketnews

For Any Sunny Day

Rosé is the perfect light, slightly sweet and fruity wine for a sunny day. Graham Norton's 'Pink by Design' Rosé wafts aromas of raspberry, strawberry, lime zest and melons. Fresh, lively and impeccably balanced, it's an intense yet easy drinking wine that's perfect for any occasion, especially with charcoal-grilled chicken and pork, or with a leafy green salad and piquant zingy dressing.

Best enjoyed slightly chilled, and available at an RRP of $18.99.

